TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

Berlin 25th.—The Ministerial situation continues in the same state of uncertainty, and is the great topic of the day in all European circles. This morning General Caprivi was again seen making his way to the Hubertschloss, to see the Emperor, who is recovering from the great debility caused by his recent illness, and which, for a time, rendered all work impossible for him. The news to-day is that although Caprivi has handed over the Presidency of the Council to Count Eulenburg, he cannot give up the Chancellorship, owing to the Triple Alliance.

St. Petersburgh 25th.—The officers of the Reserve Army are daily receiving orders to study the case of a rapid mobilization of troops, and the precautions necessary to prepare for a probable war. Advices from the east of Prussia say that the Koenigsberg frontier has been closed to the Russian Jews.

Singapore 25th—The whole Malay Peninsula is in a state of great excitement, owing to a revolt of the natives against the British. Several hard fights have taken place, resulting in a great number killed. The Malays attacked the Temerlos station, took it, and killed many people.

Rome 25th—The trial of a gang of Anarchists has concluded. Fifty two of them have been condemned to from one to twelve months' imprisonment.

Adelaide (Australia) 25th.—A terrible drought prevails and thousands of sheep have perished.

London 25th.—Advices from Queensland report great misery there and many people out of employment.

Aucona 25th.—An avalanche of snow has fallen near this city, killing six people and destroying several houses.

New York 25th—It is announced from Berlin that the Reichstag has voted 250,000 marks for Germany's appearance at the World's Fair in Chicago.

Amsterdam 25th.—Eight corpses have been recovered from the debris of yesterday's fire, which was caused by an explosion of benzine. Search is being made for other missing persons, amongst them many women and children.

Paris, 26th—The Journal des Debats, referring to the search by the police for the authors of the recent explosions, says that another Anarchist plot, that would have had serious consequences, if carried out, has been discovered.

It adds that, while some were preparing their work of destruction with dynamite, others intended to use poison, which they hoped to bring to bear by getting employed as servants by families. Three members of this new band have fallen into the hands of the police. The news has spread terror amongst families.

Wersaw, 26th—The fear of a war is increasing, and the reports afloat have acquired a certain amount of confirmation from the great number of troops now stationed throughout Poland.

Milan, 26th—In all the cities of the Kingdom an enthusiastic wish that the country be worthily represented at the Chicago Exhibition has sprung up in the past few days: and it is hoped that Italy will take a foremost place in the Show. The North American Commissioner declares that he is extremely satisfied at the support he has met with in all quarters.

Berlin, 26th—Emperor William is expected to return here to-morrow The Catholic paper Germania says that Catholics are no longer disposed to support the Government, and they therefore refuse to support further outlay for ironclads.

An Imperial decree has been issued prohibiting, under severe penalties, the passage of Russian Jews through German territory. It being known that 300,000 Jews are trying to leave Russia, orders have been given to reinforce the military cordon on the frontier, to more rigorously enforce the decree.

Paris, 26th—The libel case against the Intransigeant is concluded. The court condemned Rochefort to a year's imprisonment and 200 francs fine: and the manager of the paper to two months' imprisonment and 2000 francs fine.

Granada, 26th—The murderer of the Marquis Carclice has been arrested here. His name is Abril.

Athens, 26th—On May 15th Parliament will be dissolved, and the new Chambers will meet on June 6th.

London, 26th—The House of Commons threw out to-day a motion proposing that a salary should be paid to members of Parliament.

New York, 26th—A telegram from Paris to the New York Herald says that the new Treaty of Extradition between France and the United States was signed to-day.

Lisbon, 26th—Advices from the Portuguese travellers Carmago and Elbo say that they have liberated 1500 slaves, most of them women, who were shut up in Zanzibar by Mukuluba.

St. Petersburg, 26th—Another decree forbidding the export of wheat in the Black Sea has been issued.

Paris, 26th—A movement is on foot to increase the reserve of the Bank of France. The Government has advanced it forty millions of francs without interest.

Brussels, 26th—The Portuguese and German Parliaments have ratified the Treaty of Brussels against slavery.

(Havas Agency)

Berlin 25th.—It is said that Dr. Bose, Under Secretary of Education, will be named to succeed Count von Zedlitz as Minister of Education.

The Cabinet crisis is over. Caprivi remains Imperial Chancellor and Foreign Affairs Minister of Prussia, Count Eulenburg is appointed President of the Prussian Cabinet, without portfolio. Dr. Bose is the new Prussian Minister of Education.

THE ARAUCANIA MAILS.

LATEST EROM EUROPE.

London, March 2nd.

A debate took place in the House of Commons on Feb. 24th upon a motion by Mr. Samuel Smith in favour of disestablishing the Church of England in Wales. The Government opposed the proposal, which was rejected on a division by 267 votes to 220. The chief interest centred in the action of the Liberal-Unionists. With the Gladstonians, for the resolution, there voted Mr. J. Chamberlain, Mr. T. W. Russell, Mr. Powell Williams, and Mr. Bickford-Smith. The Unionists who went into the Lobby with Ministers included Sir John Lubbock, Viscount Ebrington, Mr. Finlay, Mr. Fraser-Mackintosh, Mr. Coghill, and Mr. Parker Smith. It was understood that Mr. Gladstone paired for the resolution, which was supported by nearly all the Irish Nationalists. Last session a similar motion was rejected by 235 to 202.

On the 25th ult. Mr. Provand moved and Sir John Lubbock seconded the second reading of the Shop Hours Bill, which proposes to bring women within the provisions of the Shop Hours Regulation Act. The discussion was treated as a non-party one, but Mr. Balfour and Mr. Matthews suggested that it would be better to agree to a select committee of inquiry in preference to passing the second reading. Mr. Provand's proposal was, however, carried by 175 votes to 152.

Kaiser Wilhelm, replying to the toast of his health at the banquet of the Brandenburg Diet, declared his conviction that the Royal House and the German Fatherland had a great destiny before them, and that he was leading his people to glorious days.

It is stated that the King of Italy will visit England at the end of July, and that a naval review will be held in his honour at Spithead.

Cardinal Mermillod, formerly Vicar-Apostolic of Geneva, died at Rome.

A deputation introduced by Mr. John Morley, which included Sir Charles Russell, Mr. H. H. Fowler, and other members of Parliament, together with several clergymen, waited on Mr. Matthews with reference to the rights of public meeting in London. The Home Secretary stated that the police did not interfere with the delivery of addresses to gatherings in the streets unless they became a nuisance, and pointed out that 540 such assemblies took place weekly in 455 localities without any objection from the authorities. There were in addition fifty open spaces where vast demonstrations were constantly being held.

From a statement made by the chairman of the Finance Committee of the London County Council, at yesterday's meeting of that body, it appears that the county rate for 1892-93 will be 13d in the pound.

Sir Charles Butt refused to direct the payment by the Duke of Marlborough of a larger allowance for the maintenance of his son, the Marquis of Blandford, who comes of age in November next, the learned judge observing that the Divorce Court had no jurisdiction to make such an order.

Everybody knew that the late Mr. W. H. Smith was wealthy; few, perhaps, imagined that his personalty would reach the enormous sum of £1,764,000. With two exceptions—Mr. John Rylands, of Ryland and Son, and Mr. Junius S. Morgan, banker, London—no one in recent years has left so much. Of course Mr. Smith's £1,764,000 does not represent his total wealth. It was understood that of late years he had been purchasing land in large quantities, and the value of his estates alone must be considerable. Few men with a monopoly have done better than the late leader of the House of Commons.

Mr. Henry Doyle, the director of the Dublin National Gallery, has died in London suddenly of disease of the heart. Mr. Doyle had come to London for the purpose of consulting his doctor.

Further cases of ill-treatment of soldiers in the German Army are cited by the Bavarian War Office in a circular which it has just addressed to the Second Army Corps. A telegram from Ulm, in Wurtemburg, reports the suicide of a sergeant there while under arrest for wrongful treatment of his subordinates.

The people of Southampton have been terribly excited over the lectures of a woman named O'Gorman, who calls herself "An escaped Nun." A Southampton paper says:—"It is matter for surprise that she could draw such large audiences when we consider the sparse attendance at many of our best concerts, where talent of the first order is provided, and one can only attribute it to that lust for sensation inherent in the human heart."

Berlin, March 1st.

One result of the recent riots has been to direct public attention to the widespread distress among the unemployed in nearly all the large cities of Germany. At Dantzig yesterday a procession of unemployed went to the Town Hall to petition the Municipality for relief. The magistrate subsequently resolved to give work to a large number by reclaiming waste lands and forests, and voted a special credit of 10,000 marks for this purpose. The misery in Dantzig is described as very great, but perfect order prevails.

The Government sustained a defeat in the Reichstag to-day during the resumed debate upon the Navy Estimates. Notwithstanding the strong reasons urged by Count Caprivi yesterday in favor of the clause providing for the construction of cruiser corvettes, the credits for which were to be distributed over a term of years, the House rejected the first instalment asked in the estimates for one of these corvettes. The minority consisted of members of the Right and the National Liberals. The other items of the account for naval construction were passed.

Vienna, March 1st.

A meeting of the Central Relief Committee, at which the Burgomaster was also present, was held at the Rathshaus to-day for the purpose of making a house to house collection of money for the relief of the distressed, and of deciding the method in which the funds thus obtained should be distributed. It is reported that a dispute has already broken out between the new Central Committee and the Social Democratic Committee, which has hitherto been carrying on the main portion of the work of charitable relief. In spite of this, however, the subscriptions continue to pour in. £1700 have been promised today, and Baron von Rothschild has subscribed 1500 gulden.

At to-day's distribution of bread outside the office of the Volkspresse many piteous scenes were witnessed. Out of a crowd of 12,000 men and women who assembled only 8000 could be provided with loaves. On it becoming known that the supply was nearly exhausted, those who had received nothing raised a perfect yell of disappointment, and began struggling furiously with one another to get near the building before the last loaves had gone. When there were no more to be obtained the people seemed to lose all control of themselves, and behaved like maniacs. The crush was so terrible that ten women fainted. At this juncture a strong force of police appeared on the scene, and after some difficulty succeeded in quieting the disturbance and inducing the people to disperse in an orderly manner.

All classes in Vienna now realise the gravity of the situation, and many expedients are being resorted to in order to aid the charitable movement. The managing committees of the public halls, which are so popular in Vienna, announce that they will devote their surplus receipts to aiding the distressed and unemployed.

Rome, March 1st.

The Pope gave solemn audience to the Cardinals in the Throne Room of the Vatican to-day, when Mgr. la Valetta, as senior member of the Sacred College, expressed the devotion of that body to His Holiness and their congratulations on the occasion of to-morrow's double anniversary of his birthday and coronation. The Pope, said in reply.

"Cardinal Valetta in the course of his address spoke of Innocent III., to whose memory I erected a mausoleum in the Basilica of St John Lateran. That tomb recalls the two great ideas which were his guiding principles—the redemption of the holy places and the independence of the Church, for the attainment of which objects he declared that to die would be gain."

The Pope then went on to say that it was to these objects that he had devoted all his care during the past fourteen years, although the changes which had taken place in public opinion rendered the task a difficult one. The century in which Innocent III. lived was a strange mixture of virtue and vice, but the predominating influence was the religious sentiment of faith which vivified the social and political organisation. The contrary prevailed at the present day, and emboldened the enemies of the Church and the Papacy, whose deliberate desire was to do away with the name of Christian.

The Pope concluded:—"In spite of everything the Church possesses a secret of invincible strength which the world does not understand, because it is not derived from the world, and confiding in that strength we will tranquilly pursue our course, ready to consecrate to our difficult mission the length of days which it may still please God to vouchsafe to us." The Pope then bestowed the Pontifical blessing on those present.

Barcelona, March 1st.

The police have discovered an Anarchist plot to blow up the German Consulate-General in this city. A number of the principal Anarchists, who are stated to have been concerned in the outrage, have been arrested.

Washington, March 1st.

A resolution was introduced into the House of Representatives to-day expressing the desire of the American people for the renewal, as nearly as practicable, of the Reciprocity Treaty between the United States and Great Britain, signed in 1854, with regard to the business relations of the States with Canada.

Ottawa, Mrch 1st.

Sir John Thempson, Minister of Justice, states that the Behring Sea Treaty is applicable to waters outside the jurisdiction of Canada, and although the Canadians are deeply interested in the matter, the ratification of the document is not considered dependent upon its acceptance or rejection by the Dominion Parliament.

Melbourne, March 1st.

An extensive bush fire is reported in the western district of the colony. The damage is stated to be serious.

Mr. Taylor, manager of the Credit Bank, which recently suspended payment, has been sentenced to two years' hard labour for fraud.

The Queensland Government has decided to stop further immigration into the colony on completion of the present contracts, owing to the number of unemployed.

In moving that the House at Sydney should adjourn in order to discuss the subject of Australian Federation, Sir Henry Parkes gave a masterly review of the progress of the movement for the establishment of the federation of the Australian colonies from its inception, and declared that Parliament was not a fit body to consider this question. He suggested that a special Convention should be elected by the people to consider the draft bill elaborated by the Inter-Colonial Convention at Sydney. In reply to Mr. Barton, the Attorney-General declared that the Government was anxious to proceed to discuss the subject of Federation.

Sydney, February 26th.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Finlayson, late directors, and Mr. Millir, late manager of the Australian Mercantile Loan and Guarantee Company, of this city, who have been tried by the Central Criminal Court here for fraud, have all been sentenced to seven years' hard labour.

THE LA PLATA MAILS.

THREE DAYS LATER.

London, March 5th.

In the House of Lords yesterday, Lord Monkswell asked Earl Cadogan if he could substantiate a statement in a pamphlet on the County Council Election, to which the noble Earl's signature was affixed, that the County Council rate had been already increased from tenpence to thirteenpence in the pound. Earl Cadogan could not recognise the noble Lord's right to question him in Parliament, as he had not signed the pamphlet as a Minister of the Crown. He stood by the statements made in the circular in question. After some discussion the subject dropped.

The discussion on the Vote of £20,000 for the survey of the Mombasa Railway was resumed in Committee of Supply by Mr. Labouchere, and carried on by Sir Lewis Pelly and others. Sir W. Harcourt attacked the policy of the Government, but concluded his speech with the remark that he had no information which would justify him in affirming or rejecting the Vote. The Chancellor of the Exchequer replied that the country all round Nyanza was one in which the slave trade prevailed, and it was on both sides of the lake that the Government intended to operate for its suppression. While Dr. Clark was speaking, Mr. Balfour moved the Closure, which was carried by 206 to 126, and the Vote being put it was carried by 211 to 113.

Serious distress continues in Vienna, and yesterday fifteen thousand people applied to the authorities for bread, many of them being unable to obtain any. The intense cold adds to the misery of the suffering population. At Dantzig the distress among the working classes yesterday led to some rioting in the streets.

On the Coal Exchange yesterday, the quotation for best house coal was advanced two shillings per ton. As the merchants considered this rise unwarranted, they decided to make no increase in the price of coal to consumers. It is reported from Barnsley that the miners may decide to work five instead of six days a week, instead of stopping the collieries for a week, according to the notices they have tendered to their employers.

There were only four seats for the Cambridgeshire County Council contested in the county districts, whilst eight electoral divisions in the Cambridge Borough were fought. In the result the Conservatives carried four of the seats formerly held by Liberals, three of these being in the St. Andrew-the-Less district of Cambridge and the other at Gamlingay.

Money was quoted yesterday at 1¼ to 1⅝ per cent., and the discount rate at 1¾ per cent. Prices were dull on the Stock Exchange till the afternoon, when they rallied for all but a few Government issues, Spanish being notably flat. Consols rose ¼, to 95⅞ for cash. The Bank received 30,000*l.* in gold from abroad.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Education is rapidly falling away in the provinces, owing to the chronic hard-upness of the Governments. There appears to be money for everything except paying lawful debts and educating the rising generation, and these are precisely the two tests of a Government. Posterity will judge the Cordobese of the 19th century by the attention paid to the cause of education; and it does sound strange that Cordoba, the once famous sanctuary of learning in the Republic, is now following the example of San Luis and closing the doors of several public schools. The excuse is that there is no money to support the schools in question. Thus Cordoba and San Luis are now drifting towards ignorance, which is sometimes described as in a blissful condition. After all, this is a negative advantage for the present men in office; they will have the satisfaction of knowing that a good part of the rising generation will not read of the blunders and follies which have brought a civilized province to so low a level. The schools closed up through the hard-upness of the Cordobese Government are those of Rio Cuarto. The local Municipality is, of course, hard up, and can't keep the schools going. By suppressing a few soldiers, however, it would be easy for the Cordobese Government to defray the insignificant expenditure involved in keeping the schools open. Rio Cuarto, however, contributes about $200,000 per annum to the provincial revenue, and it has an undoubted right to claim a portion of that sum to defray the cost of primary education.

Our Rosario exchanges state, upon what they call the best authority, that the Governor, Señor Cafferata, is going to resign. It is said that efforts are being made to dissuade H. E. from carrying out his intention, as he has done so much to repress crime that a man now runs only 65 chances more of being killed in Rosario than he would have at midnight in a dark lane in Paris, while in the settlements, so vigorous is the action of the police, that the certainty which existed formerly of a colonist being killed is now a probability. Santa Fé has progressed wonderfully under Mr. Cafferata. Murders and outrages, no doubt, are of every day occurrence, but then the province is a smiling wheat field. In fact wheat is so plentiful that to prevent the colonists from sowing it on the roofs of their houses it has been found necessary to levy a tax on the grain. It is true that the Provincial Bank has been smashed up, but this is only a fresh proof of progress, for everything in nature, whether a man, a tree, or a bank, progresses towards decay and material extinction. The lamentable smash up of the Provincial Bank cannot be traced to the violation of financial laws. No, this is the result of a well-known physical law, for which H. E. is not accountable. It is to be hoped that H. E's term of office will not be affected by this natural law of extinction.

As to the cause of H. E's withdrawal from public affairs, two motives are alleged. The first is that, seeing himself crowned with the laurels of a brilliant and successful administration, of which the main features are a general peace and widespread contentment, he is anxious to withdraw in the apogee of popularity. The other motive is that, as Sergent Buz-Fuz said of the immortal Pickwick, "his wheels have been greased" by the National Government in reference to the Metzstaff caese, of which we gave the painful particulars in a recent issue.

The Rosario Gas Company have threatened to stop lighting the city from All Fools' Day, if the Municipality don't pay the little bill which the Company have been trying to collect time out of mind.

LETTERS FROM PATAGONIA.

XVI.

THE PAMPA ON FIRE. A SQUARE MEAL. THE END.

All around, a sheet of fire is travelling over the pampa, skurrying along the dry grass. Bushes, with loud roaring and crackling, are burning fiercely, sending huge volumes of black smoke to the skies. It is a fine spectacle.

It is said that on the plains of North America there is serious danger for man and beast when the prairie is on fire. This is not the case here, as far as I have seen it. Even when the wind is blowing, the fire does not travel fast enough to overtake a man going at a quiet walk. Sometimes the traveller finds himself compelled to ride through the blaze; this is easily done, when the horse is a sensible animal, without more harm than a little singing of hair and eyebrows.

I roast my swan. I have just had time to eat a leg of it, when I hear a noise behind me. A horseman appears from behind a bush.

"Buenas tardes!"

"Buenos tardes! What are you doing here?"

"Not much to boast of, eating a rotten swan. How far am I from Isla Pavon?"

"Four leagues. Where is your horse?"

"Far away by now." And I tell him my little story.

"Throw away that filthy 'bicho'," says he, "and come along with me. I was camping a mile below when I saw the smoke of your fire. We'll go back there, for you haven't left a blade of grass for my horse hereabout."

So I follow him, or rather try to follow him, dragging along my weary legs, whilst he cheers me up saying that at my rate of walking I shall never reach Pavon Island, and telling me how he and a comrade once lost their horses in the desert, and how, though they had provisions, his companion died from fatigue during the march. Then he starts at a gallop, to prepare everything for my reception.

When I come up with him, I find a fire lit, the kettle on the embers, and my 'gaucho' busy sticking huge pieces of meat on a spit before the blaze. Dignity hinders me from expressing the rapture I feel, but I cannot refrain from asking:

"Guanaco, is it?"

"Guanaco!" says he contemptuously. No! Beef! Fall to, man!

Messrs. Moore & Tudor, Maipu 163, B. Aires.
Chascomus, March 23rd 1891.
Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "ASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "ASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.
It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.
Saturday, March 26.
The weekly liquidation came off to-day with a fair supply of gold and a steady market. About twenty-two thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring: the price opened at $57.20, fell to 57, rose to 57.30, and closed firm at 57.20, say 25¼ % premium. One thousand sovereigns were sold at 17.75 to 17.77, closing hard at 17.76, say 252½ % premium. The market closed very hard at last rates.
Exchange advanced to-day. Sterling was quoted at 48¾ to 48⅞d. on London. Francs were done from 5.08 on Paris to 5.09½ on Antwerp, first-class. Marks were quoted at 4.09 and 4.10. There were few takers in the field and little business was reported this morning.
Patriotic Bonds were dull and weak at 58.70. A few Argentine Gas shares changed hands at 38. Spanish Bank shares were quoted at 85. National Cedulas C advanced to 76. La Plata Cedulas were slightly weaker all round.
The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

Our London Correspondent writes as follows on the failure of Mr. C. H. Sanford in England:—
"The bankruptcy of Mr. Sanford, of S. B. Hale & Co., was published in a late edition of last Saturday's London Gazette. He filed his own petition on account of the opposition of the International Bank, which refused to enter into an arrangement with the firm. It is still hoped that the bank will come into the arrangement, and up to this date nothing has been done beyond the granting by the court of a receiving order. The Financial News says:—
"There are some peculiar features about the bankruptcy of Mr. H. B. Sanford, the London partner of the firm of S. B. Hale & Co., of Buenos Ayres, which are largely due to the eccentricities of the Argentine bankruptcy law. The firm of Hale & Co., it seems, were indebted for £75,000 to the International Bank of London, and that institution, refusing to assent to a scheme of settlement which contemplated the turning over of the assets of the firm to a limited liability company, and the issuing of Debentures to the creditors, commenced legal proceedings against Mr. Hale in London. Under the Argentine law, we understand, when one of the firm becomes bankrupt he ceases, 'ipso facto,' to be a partner. Mr. Sanford, therefore, at once filed his own petition, and has thus rendered it impossible for the International Bank of London to interfere further with the proposed arrangement with other creditors. Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co., it will be remembered, were the agents in Buenos Ayres of the firm of Baring Brothers and Co., and it was the Buenos Ayres Water and Drainage bubble which ultimately brought them to grief."
"With regard to other matters:—
"A wordy warfare has arisen between Mr. R. P. Houston, the leader of the agitation for Argentine Railway Amalgamation, and the board of the Central brokerage of 9 o|o, and the Municipality a tax of 3 o|o. The Municipality could easily levy a tax on the halling in this city that would cover the expenses of all the hospitals.

The Lamport & Holt steamer Wordsworth got off to-day; her passengers did not enjoy the Hopkins storm in the Roads and La Plata Dock.

Dates from London up to 3rd March state:—

"Rates continued weak yesterday in the Money Market, call loans ruling about 2¼ per cent and three months' bills at 2 per cent. The sum of £18,000 in gold came into the Bank.

"The Stock Markets were weak and unsettled. Consols fell off, but Rupee fours improved. Spanish had a sharp fall which imparted weakness to Internationals generally. Home Rails were depressed by the weekly traffics and the impending coal strike.

"The Mining Market was dull, and prices were, as a rule, slightly lower in all departments.

Wall-street was again active, a strong advance following an early reaction. Vanderbilt stock and Eries were especially strong, but the list generally closed fairly firm.

"The Settlement occupied the general attention on the Paris Bourse yesterday. Rates for carrying over were light, stocks being scarce for delivery. Rents were fractionally easier, while Spanish and Italian securities were again weak. Greek stock declined about five francs, but Russian and Egyptian securities showed a hardening tendency.

"Silver is quoted ¼d harder at 41⅞ per ounce for bars.

"The Victorian Government is credited with the intention of placing on the London market, without delay, £2,000,000 Four and a-Half per Cent Treasury Bonds, the minimum being par."

The Pacific steamer Galicia, from Liverpool, left Rio yesterday for the Plate; she is expected at Montevideo on the 29th and is posted to leave that port same day.

The Platense steamer Mercurio arrived this morning in the Boca after a stormy passage. She brought a full cargo and about forty passengers. Heavy rains have fallen in the Rio Negro valley and in the Mesopotamia between the Negro and Colorado; camps are green and animals are fattening. The Mercurio is posted to return to Patagones on 3rd. prox.

The gold market ruled very steady at the second ring; nine thousand ounces were sold for Monday: the price opened at $57.30 and prevailed till a few minutes before four when a slight break took place, the market closing at $57.20, same rate as in the morning. Three thousand sovereigns were sold: the price opened at $17.78, rose to $17.80, and closed at $17.76. Stocks and shares ruled dull and weak.

The Minister of the Interior issued a decree to day appointing Messrs A Ringuelet, Luis Valiente Noailles, and Luis A Huergo as members of a committee of liquidation for the works entrusted to Messrs. Lucas Gonzalez & Co. The committee are empowered to settle the questions between the contracting company and the Department of Public Works, questions which were ventilated before a court of arbitration comprising the above members of the Liquidation Committee. The Committee must work on the basis of the resolutions of the Cabinet Council held on 11th April last year, when the works in question were suspended, also on the basis of the contract for construction, the Public Works Act, the decision of the Court of Arbitrators, and finally of the observations recently made by the Board of Public Works. The Committee must forward a report of their doings to the Minister.

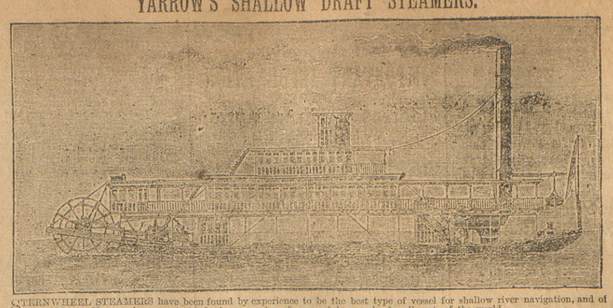
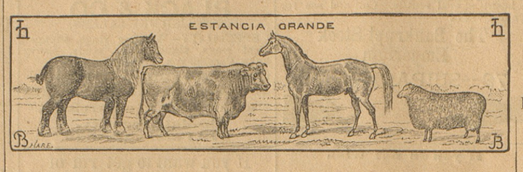
YARROW'S SHALLOW DRAFT STEAMERS.



STERNWHEEL STEAMERS have been found by experience to be the best type of vessel for shallow river navigation, and of these Messrs. Yarrow have constructed a large number of successful examples for all parts of the world.
Vessels on this system are constructed, when required, to draw as little as 6 inches.
Messrs. Yarrow lately built the sternwheelers "Mosquito" and "Herald" for the British Government, for service on the Zambesi.
They were constructed in floatable sections (capable of shipment), which were simply bolted together, avoiding thereby the costly and difficult process of rivetting up and launching.
For full particulars apply to—
YARROW & CO., Shipbuilders,
POPLAR, LONDON.



At the Estancia Grande, the property of GEORGE BELL, there are always on Sale Clydesdale and Cleveland Stallions, Durham Bulls, and Lincoln Rams, also Petros suitable for carriages and heavy draught.

As all animals offered for sale at this Estancia are by stallions, bulls, etc., imported direct from England by the owner, it would therefore be advantageous for intending purchasers to inspect the same before purchasing elsewhere.
Nearest Station (under a league from this Estancia) EMPALME PEREIRA F.C. a La Plata from whence animals can be despatched to any part of the Republic.
Animals of the same breeds are obtainable at the Estancia La Favorita. Apply to the Mayordomo, Almacen La Suiza, Carrera Tandil a Necochea, or to Hotel Dhees, Tandil; also at Estancia Santa Catalina. Apply Mayordomo, San Jose de la Esquina, F.C.O.S. Rosario.

Only Address in Buenos Ayres — Venezuela 1052.
